EXAMINER'S AMENDMENT

1. An examiner's amendment to the record appears below. Should the changes and/or additions be unacceptable to applicant, an amendment may be filed as provided by 37 CFR 1.312. To ensure consideration of such an amendment, it MUST be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee.

Authorization for this examiner's amendment was given in a telephone interview with Jim Folker on March 7, 2008.

In the claims:

Claim 20 is cancelled.

Allowable Subject Matter

2. Claims 1-19 are allowed. The following is an examiner's statement of reasons for allowance:

Yukawa (EP 1253025) is seen to constitute the closest prior art of record. Yukawa teaches a pneumatic tire construction comprising a noise dampening assembly within a tire cavity, wherein said assembly includes a porous material having an apparent density between 5 and 60 kg/m<sup>3</sup>. The reference further teaches that said assembly is adhesively bonded to the inner surface of the tire (using a rubber based adhesive). In this instance, the adhesive layer can be broadly viewed as an "elastic fixing band". However, as amended, the claims require the elastic fixing band to be arranged on the inner surface of the dampening assembly, which is in direct contrast to the adhesive of Yukawa which is arranged on the outer surface of said assembly.

Regarding claims 9-11, the reasons for allowance have been previously set forth.

With respect to claims 12-19, "the elastic fixing band" (adhesive) of Yukawa is not fixed by a bond to the outer surface of the noise dampening assembly (it functions to bond said assembly to the tire inner surface). Furthermore, the noise dampening assembly is not retained on the inner surface of the tire under pressure through the elastic force of the elastic fixing band.

Any comments considered necessary by applicant must be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee and, to avoid processing delays, should preferably accompany the issue fee. Such submissions should be clearly labeled "Comments on Statement of Reasons for Allowance."
